

How do we get there?

We will start our journey in the comfort of a Hart Travel motor coach. Our first night will be spent in Manistique, Michigan and then the next morning we will have a short journey to Mackinaw City. On our way we will cross the Mackinac Bridge which opened in 1957 (also known as the “Big Mac” or “Mighty Mac”). This is a suspension bridge (nearly 5 miles long) spanning the Straits of Mackinac to connect the Upper and Lower Peninsulas of Michigan.

Once in Mackinaw City, we will make way to shore and that is where we enjoy a short 20-minute to go over to the island (all our belonging will be crated and put aboard a ferry as well).

About:

Mackinac Island (MAK-in-aw) covers 3.8 square miles in land area. It is located in Lake Huron, at the eastern end of the Straits of Mackinac, between the state's Upper and Lower Peninsulas. The island was home to an Odawa settlement before European exploration began in the 17th century. It served a strategic position as a center on the commerce of the Great Lakes fur trade. This led to the establishment of Fort Mackinac on the island by the British during the American Revolutionary War. It was the site of two battles during the War of 1812.

In the late 19th century, Mackinac Island became a popular tourist attraction and summer colony. Much of the island has undergone extensive historical preservation and restoration; as a result, the entire island is listed as a National Historic Landmark. It is well known for its numerous cultural events; its wide variety of architectural styles, including the Victorian Grand Hotel and its ban on almost all motor vehicles.

Lilac Festival

Since 1949, residents have been celebrating the island's native lilacs. Originally a one-day event to bring people to the island to enjoy a parade while the lilacs are in bloom; now the festival has grown to 10 days. It's the first and largest summer event on the Island. Festivities will have started before our visit, however, your stay will be during the 2019 Festival and you'll be able to enjoy the all horse hitch Grand Parade.

Grand Hotel

The Grand Hotel opened on July 10, 1887, and took a mere 93 days to complete. It has the world's largest porch, at 660 feet in length, overlooking a vast Tea Garden and swimming pool.

A number of notable guests have visited the hotel, including five U.S. presidents (Harry Truman, John F. Kennedy, Gerald Ford, George H.W. Bush, and Bill Clinton); Russian presidents Vladimir Putin and Dmitri Medvedev; inventor Thomas Edison; and author Mark Twain.

The Grand Hotel is an iconic, award-winning resort that has been featured in classic cinema;

- The swimming pool at the Grand Hotel is named for Esther Williams, who starred in the 1947 film This Time for Keeps which featured many of its scenes on Mackinac Island.
- The majority of the 1980 film Somewhere in Time was filmed at Mission Point on Mackinac Island. Several landmarks are visible in the film, including the Grand Hotel and the lighthouse on nearby Round Island. The film's director said he needed to "find a place that looked like it hadn't changed in eighty years."
- Mackinac Island was featured on two episodes of the mid-2000s TV series Dirty Jobs, with host Mike Rowe as a Mackinac Bridge maintenance worker and a horse manure and garbage removal/composting collector.
- In a scene from the 2011 film Super 8 Elle Fanning's character Alice 'Allie' Dainard mentions the island as "Mackinac Island is beautiful this time of the year".

You will be treated to an included luncheon buffet at the Grand Hotel during your stay.
